“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Bowman family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *Dear Bowman family,
Please accept this post as my expression of sorrow over the death of your dear loved one, Ms. Katie. The bible tells us that death is an "enemy" that will be done away with in Gods due time. We can take comfort knowing that Ms. Kate is no longer suffering (please read Ecclesiastes 9:5). This scripture tells us that our loved ones are asleep in death, and that they are conscious of nothing at all. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##*

“ Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah know how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’”##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Tiffany and family. My deepest condolences for your loss. We have been so blessed to have/had parents and grandparents in our lives to help mold us and be who we are today. Knowing you Tiffany I know your grandmother. I woman of strength, compassion and cheer. I was given this poem when my mother went to sleep. It's the Blue Butterfly.

This heavenly blue butterfly will fly high in the sky, higher and higher. The sunlight will touch the blue on its wings until it seems to disappear. We think it is gone, because the blue of the butterfly is the exact same blue of the sky. We think it is gone, because our eyes are too weak to see— and it is difficult to believe what we cannot see. But the blue butterfly is not gone. It is still flying, higher and higher, nearer the sun. Blue against blue. For now and forever.

May her memory be eternal.

“ To The Family Katie Bowman: I am so sorry to read of the loss of Katie, The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Looving God promises to undo the tragic efforts of death. In John 5:28,29 God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when death and pain will be no more. Rev. 21:4 May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult, time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our loved ones. I did not know Ms. Bowman personally. To the Bowman family, I send my deepest condolence. Jesus says,"Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that done good, unto the resurrection of life.-John 5:28,29. May the Word of God comfort you.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##
