“ I am very sorry to learn the sad news about Kim almost twelve years after her passing. She and I worked together on a team of contract trainers and technical writers at the Department of Justice in Washington DC in 1996-98. When our project manager went on maternity leave, I was promoted to lead the team, and I remember that Kim was so helpful and supportive of me as I adjusted to my new role. I was very disappointed when she resigned the following year, and I hoped that we might work together again on some future project. Turnover on our team was frequent, however, and I am so sorry that I did not stay in touch with Kim.

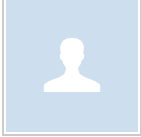

It has been over twenty years since we worked together, and last night, I had a dream about her. I was walking to my truck, which was parked on the street, and Kim was sitting in the car in front of me, talking on the phone. I thought to myself, "My goodness, it's Kim Donaldson!" and I decided to sit in my truck until she finished her conversation. When she was done, I got out of my truck and walked toward her car and said, "Kim, I'm not sure if you remember me, but I'm Jim G- and we used to work together." Before I even finished the sentence, she got out of the car and gave me a big hug. She looked exactly as she did when I last saw her in 1998, and she smiled at me with the most beautiful smile!

As soon as I got up this morning, I went to my computer and decided to search for her online. There were so many "Kimberly Donaldsons," so I did an image search. "There she is!" I exclaimed, when I saw her photo! But my joy turned to sadness when I realized that her picture was on the website of a funeral home.

I don't know whether anyone from Kim's family will see this message, but if you do, please know that my memories of Kim are happy ones, as I am sure yours are. I don't know what made me dream of her so many years after we worked together, but I wanted you to know that she is still in my thoughts and still making me smile.

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##Susan##imported-end##

“ To the Donaldson family - I'm sending my sincere condolences to each of you. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. “ To the Donaldson Family: May I express my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, your daughter, Kimberly. Death, at any age is an enemy to mankind because it robs us of our loved ones and leaves the survivors, the family, with unspeakable hurt and pain. Thankfully, our Loving God has promised that he will do away with death...and soon! (1Corinthians 15:26). He assures us that: 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and (one day soon) DEATH (no matter the cause) will be no more! (Revelation 21:4). In the days and weeks ahead as you cherish the memories of Kimberly, rest assured that she is in Jehovah God's memory too, and that very soon Kimberly will awaken from death's sleep at his command (John 5:28,29). That is Jehovah God's promised to us. It is something He is yearning to do because he deeply cares for us (1Peter 5:7, Job 14:14,15). May you find comfort in His word knowing that he will not fail to do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Donaldson family,

I am truly sorry for your loss and you are in my prayers. Kim and I met and became friends in kindergarten at Birney elementary. We lost contact after third grade until we met again at Cass and while we never made the same connection, I will never forget what a friend she was over four decades ago.###imported-begin##Christl O'Den###imported-end##
