“ I worked with Kim @ Blue Cross. We called her "Suga," because she was always "sugar sharp!" She was my "diva" inspiration. I'm so very saddened & shocked by her tragic passing. She was an amazing woman. A few years ago, I fell ill, & my world began to crumble. I was ready to give up... but Kim talked to me, & bought me out of my depression. I will be forever thankful for her kind words. I have & continue to keep the family in my prayers. God bless...

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ I will never forget the fond memories of Kim @ BBHS and after I graduate from High school. She was a one of the most fun person to be around. She was able to effortlessly make everyone else have a good time. I remember when I was attending Perfecting church in the 90's Kim will come along with me and my mom. We knew God had a plan for her and she DID love the Lord:)as I move to Atlanta, Ga in 97 I told Kim continue loving God and I will see her soon. We talk on the phone and laugh about the memories we had. Just recently Kim left a message on my FB and said I miss you and I reply I missed you more I never thought I really going to missed her..To The Williams family you have my deepest sympathy##imported-begin##Mrs Lisa Cooper-Lott##imported-end##

“ First, I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the Williams Family. I pray that GOD continues to embrace you with his mercy and grace and provide comfort to you during this time . I did not know Kimberly very well, I met her through our commutes on the bus. She normally sat up front on the bus, and always greeted each of us who commuted with her regularly with a bright smile and a "Good Morning". She was very elegant and classy, and most importantly, I could tell from some of our brief conversations that she had a good spirit. GOD now has one more bright soul to light up his kingdom.##imported-begin##Ruby Edison##imported-end##

“ As Salaam Alaikum

My Sister KIM! Wow we have been sisters so long that I cant imagine life without you. You have been my most loyal friend, My confidant the auntie to my boys. I am just devastated by your loss. Last month when I completed my internship I was told to invite my family. Kim was on the front row! SHE and my son share a birthday. She would always take him out for ice cream and found all of his escapades hilarious.

Our lives were blessed to have her for all the years we did. This year we will celebrate at COLD STONE without her but she will NEVER be forgotten.

I love you KIM....##imported-begin##Sis Lachele Muhammad##imported-end##

“ My beloved sister, my friend! I miss you already. When I heard the news my heart dropped to my feet. I kept hoping and wishing that maybe someone had the wrong Kim. I kept thinking this couldn't be my sister but now we know its true and we all have to live with it. Everyone who came in contact with you felt connected to you in someway because your spirit was beautiful. I don't know why you are gone from us so soon but I do know that instead of continuing to cry I will treasure all that you were to me. I have our memories, our conversations, our text, our jokes, our pictures to hold on to and carry me through this time. I will never let go. I love you forever and ever!

“ My Kimmy, I would've never thought I would be writing a message to you this way! I'm used to emailing, calling, text messaging and talking with you via social sites! You are already missed and my heart hasn't stopped hurting yet. I'm still in disbelief. Your smile, spirit, love & joy will be missed by so many! I will cherish and remember all of the fun times we shared here at home, out of state and amongst the rest of our friends! I almost can't stop writing, but I will stop :-(I will keep your family & friends in Prayer daily! Until We meet again! I Love You & Always will! My condolences are with the Williams Family!###imported-begin##Ms. Dretta###imported-end##
