“ I've made several attempts this week to write a few lines in remembrance of my cousin. I found it impossible to sum up 43 yrs of memories in just a paragraph or two. However I want to say that Kim was a rare jewel in our family. She believed in putting her best foot forward in ALL situations. Intellegent, ambitious, multi talented, couragous, brave, beautiful, resorceful, oh yeah FIESTY (smile)... I can go on & on. Kim was always a perfect role model to me, always there to lend a helping hand. I don't understand why, but I've learned to trust in the Lord. For he surely knows best. Take your rest dear cousin, we will meet again.##imported-begin##Tresa D. Lilly##imported-end##

“ Time was stolen from us to rediscover each other and what we liked. Time is something we will never have again and for that I am saddened. Kim, you were too young to leave so soon. I miss you and I can only believe that you are at peace and that God has you under his protective wing.

Until we meet again, rest in peace and family, know that Kim was loved and is loved. With heart felt sympathy

“ To the family of Kim Craft:

I am sorry to hear of the loss of Kim. The bible promises everlasting life. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Kim can rest now. We have to struggle to survive this wicked system.

The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15.26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing).

John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous". If you would like a free home bible study, to find out what the bible really teaches about where is the dead and the future hope and blessing for those who have died like Kim, please contact www.watchtower.org

“ I am offering the family my deepest regrets. Kim was a quiet blessing to my family, especially my daughter as she grew into adulthood. I met her 10 years ago and was her writing coach who become a friend. She visited my home on occasion and was known to drop off a gift or card for special occasions. I am so proud of her for going on to complete a masters degree and for always being a kind support to me and my family. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Lindiwe S. Lester and Family##imported-end##

“ *My prayers are with the Craft Family.
The last time I spoke to Kim was at Christmastime. I gave her a framed poetry that God allowed me to write, entitled "A Transformed Heart"*

We loved her in our Weight Management class and she shared Christmas gifts with us. She will always be remembered.
