“ *Mrs. Helen, Madear, Joyce and family;
LaTonya is a jewel she is someone I can truly call a friend, always thinking about someone else, never wanting to make herself the center of conversation. I can remember times she told me she had to call and wake mom up early because she was not an early person and she got a kick out of doing that. Madear LaTonya talked about how she missed your home cooked meals and how she wished she were there. Little Sis Joyce, the times she would tell me you and her could be on the phone just laughing and talking about everything. You said today, you may live in Atlanta but it was as if you were right there with her; yes that is so true. Big T as she was affectionally called will always be my friend, my sister in Christ.*

I Peter 4-10 As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of GOD.##imported-begin##Faye E. Carey##imported-end##

“ Joyce,
I'm sorry to hear about the passing of your sister and my cousin, Tonya. I spoke with her by phone one time when I was in Detroit visiting Rock's family and she was truly a fun loving, spirited, jovial person. Though I won't be able to join you on Friday, I am with you in spirit celebrating her time here on Earth and looking forward to seeing her one day in Heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, your mom and family during this time. If there's anything we can do, please let us know.

“ Dearest beloved sister and best-friend, you and i have loved and shared and cried and laughed and have endured...we were as close as any sisters could be, whenever i didn't know something or needed help, i could always call you, no problem, no matter what the topic, or what level...you knew it and you never made me feel any less for not knowing...you were my rock, its an extreme pleasure to be your baby-sister....only God knows how much I will miss you, but only God knows what's best for us all...forever my love, Latonya.

“ I used to work with Latonya at SBC but sadly lost touch with her after she left the company. She was more than just a coworker, we were friends and also neighbors. I will always remember her unique humor. She could always cheer me up and make me laugh. I did try to keep in touch and I'm sorry I was unable to. Latonya will truly be missed.

May God's peace and blessings be with the family at this difficult time.
