“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

“ Vearn...I did not get the chance to say how much I appreciated your friendship...so I guess I will say it now. I will always treasure the memories and great times that we had at EMU. In fact, you were one of the first people I met as a freshman. I will never forget our bus trip to Florida or the family road trip to Kings Island. Through it all, you were the one who kept everyone together and found the bright side in all situations. I never would have thought that our encounter at the talent show a year ago would be our last time seeing each another. Thanks for all of the great memories. While we have lost an angel...Heaven has gained an angel. You will be truly missed.##imported-begin##Nicole Mallory##imported-end##

“ I wish that there was more time for me to get to know you better. We worked together for years at Motor City Casino Hotel and the few times that we worked side by side I never really took the time to know you better. I really don't know why, maybe it was the fact that most of the time I was to caught up in my own selfiness. But one thing I do remember about working with you is you never invaded my personal space, when we worked together in the cage department. You gave me my space and I really appreicated that. I spoke to you only weeks before GOD called you home would have nevere guessed that would be the last conversation I would have with you, but I will always remember the person that you were, which was one of a kind. You will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Sherrell Martin##imported-end##

“ Dear sis,
The years that we had that special bond that could not be broken. You shared your heart and smile with others. You looked for the good in people and accepted them for who they were. You were my backbone, my sister, and a true spirit that I will miss dearly. The years of sisterhood, friendship, and love until the end of time. God has a special angel in heaven. Watching over others with your wings. Love ya with all my heart. U WILL BE TRULY MISSED##imported-begin##Corneshia Robinson##imported-end##
