

Ms. Lealer Lucille Hill

June 9, 1918 - May 6, 2010

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Ms. Lealer Lucille Hill

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I pray that a comforting thought from the bible will help ease your pain in this time of need found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##x##imported-end##

May 14, 2010 at 01:03 PM

“ It was my pleasure to care for mrs.hill. She always had a kind word and was more concern about how I was doing when she was clearly in pain. She may have only been in my life for a few months,but a piece of her spirit will be with me for a lifetime. God Bless.##imported-begin##Greg Simpson##imported-end##

May 13, 2010 at 12:51 PM

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. I hope the following scriptural information will comfort you in your time of need.

Revelation 21:3-4, "...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

Psalms 37:11, "the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.

John 5:21, 28-29, "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out." Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions. (Luke 23:43; John 3:16; 17:3; compare Psalm 37:29 and Matthew 5:5.) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing to fulfill it.

2Corinthians 1:3-4, "Blessed be ...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." - "You are opening your hand and satisfying the desire of every living thing." - Psalm 145:16

Please be assured that you and your family will indeed be in my prayers in days, weeks and months to come.##imported-begin##Deborah Hanks##imported-end##

May 13, 2010 at 11:10 AM

“ I will always remember Aunt Lealer as a beautiful, sweet, kind-hearted, and caring person. During a difficult time in my life, I approached her with tears in my eyes and head held low. She welcomed me into her home and lovingly said:

"Hold your head up. You know as long as I have a roof over my head, you do too; but when you get enough, you won't have to ask Aunt Lealer anything."

I did not know at the time how prophetic those words were and although that was 30 years ago, I will always remember what she said. Until then I did not know how important it is to hold your head up, even when you would rather not. This simple, yet significant piece of advice, has helped me through many more difficult times in my life and for that I am grateful and my memories of her will forever dwell in my heart.

*With much love to Aunt Lealer and all my cousins,
Margaret##imported-begin##Dr. Margaret R. Kern##imported-end##*

May 12, 2010 at 01:19 PM