“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Boyd-Carroll###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Langford family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Arie##imported-end##

“ I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Throw your burden upon our Grand Creator, he cares for you. Even Jesus reassures us, Luke 23:43 - "You will be with me in paradise". There were many Jesus resurrected, while alive on earth. That was a fore gleam of the grand resurrection, soon to be. Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
