“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ As I know the pain you and your family are going thur, there are now words or action that can ease your pain. Just remeber the memories and the good times you had. Thoughts and prayers are with all in this time of need.

Your sorrow itself shall be turned into joy. Not the sorrow to be taken away, and joy to be put in its place, but the very sorrow which now grieves you shall be turned into joy. God not only takes away the bitterness and gives sweetness in its place, but turns the bitterness into sweetness itself. - Charles Haddon Spurgeon##imported-begin##Jeramie Faller##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Sumpter family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
