“ *To the Gtaes family
Now that I am gone,
remember me with smiles and laughter.
And if you need to cry,
cry with your brother or sister
who walks in grief beside you.
And when you need me,
put your arms around anyone
and give to them what you need to give to me.
There are so many who need so much.
I want to leave you something -- something much better than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've known
or helped in some special way.
Let me live in your heart
as well as in your mind.
You can love me most
by letting your love reach out to our loved ones,
by embracing them and living in their love.
Love does not die, people do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
give me away as best you can.##imported-begin##Quantin Evans

“ To the Hope and Gates Family...

The lost of a loved one seems hard to bare. God never promised us eternal life on earth, but eternal life in Heaven. It is our desire to see God and our loved ones who have gone on before us. Mother Gates knew that God knew her condition and would decide the best results for her. She knew her teachings and training was received by her children and family...and now they can handle life. God Knew Just How Much Mother Gates Could Bear...so He gently received her into His Kingdom. Family, cling to the Master. He will wipe all tears away; He'll be your comforter; He'll be your guide. it's your time to mourn! Take it one step at a time.

I am praying for you and with you. Turn to Jesus and He will direct your path!

Much Love,

Cookie Riley and Family##imported-begin##Ruby D.
