“ I had the honor of being one of the many caregivers at Karmanos Cancer Center to care for Ms. Richardson. I was blessed to always see her come to the center looking beautiful with her wonderful spirit affecting us all in such a loving way. I will miss taking care of your wonderful mother and grandmother.

Sincerely,

Ms Leola Ruffin, RDMS

“ Grandma Lo had an amazing gift of discernment. She always knew who could and could not be trusted. I will miss witnessing that gift and listening to her "sayings," such as:
"if you don't know what to do, do nothing (for now)"
"if you get me once..."
"haste makes waste"
"always follow your first mind"
"if you live by the sword, you'll die by the sword"

I could go on and on with these sayings...

For now, I'll close by wishing my family peace and the comfort of knowing that Lo's legacy will live on through all of us.

God Bless,

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Richardson family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *Hey Eric,
You are in my thoughts n prayers as always. I will be calling n checking on you. Be strong for your sisters and know that your mom is in a better place looking down on you all, she is free now and in no more pain.*

Much Love,

“ Growing up, I could only speculate LoLo's age, as she was always young and beautiful. It is well I shall always remember her as such. Rest in peace, LoLo.

Love,
