“ *Dear family of Ms. Mabel E. Anderson,
When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great, but you can find comfort in knowing that Almighty God not only has the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus Christ himself said: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15 draw close to God in prayer and he promises that he will sustain you. Psalm 55:22##imported-begin##Deborah Salley##imported-end##*

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Anderson family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus]’ voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##

“ I’m very sorry about your loss; this is not what God wants. He hates seeing you miserable like this. That’s why he promises that you will be able to see Mrs. Mabel Ellen Anderson again in a paradise home. If you have your bible please read revelation 21:4 may the god of tender mercy continue to be with you.###imported-begin###Kelynn Salley###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Death of a loved one is always hard to bear, I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will all shortly come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Anderson family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Mabel Ellen. I am writing to you to share the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The scriptures tell us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that death is our enemy that will soon be destroyed by God. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
