“ My sincere condolences to the Curry family. May the God of all comfort ease your mind and heart in the days ahead. Jehovah has promised a resurrection of the dead (Acts 24:15) and he promised, the time is coming when: "...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore". (Revelation 21:3.4) Malinda and many others will be resurrected to life on a paradise earth soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of Malinda.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ *Dear Lottie and Family,
It saddened me greatly to learn of Malinda's passing. My cousin Katrina and I spoke fondly about her when she was in school at KSU. I can recall at the house on Leewin her quick wit and bubbly personality. She was so spirited especially when you were working.LOL. Please know that you are very much in my thoughts and prayers.*

Blessings,

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Malinda; Redardless of age young or old it is always davasting when we lose a love one to death. With God's love and the support of those who care so much, may you find the comfort and strength that will help you now and through the days ahead. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort , who comfort us in all our tribulation."###imported-begin##Deborah Gipson###imported-end##

“ I used to see Malinda all the time growing up. She was like a cousin to me. Malinda truly loved her family and they loved her. She was the best daughter, sister, and aunt. Some of my fondest memories of Malinda were those which involved her nieces and nephews. She was such an involved Aunt. I remember how she used to get all of her babies together and she used to take them all out at the same time. When I was younger, I used to say, I want to be an involved Aunt just like Malinda. Malinda was a beautiful person inside and out. She really had it going on. I will always remember her as the light and joy of the family. My deepest sympathies go out to the Curry family. She will truly be missed.###imported-begin##D'Alice###imported-end##

“ Malinda will be missed by so many, she was a great friend as well as a neighbor. I remember when I was little, I use to go down the street to play at her house because my sisters did not want to be bothered with me. Even though she was 2 years older than me she never complained or looked at me as if I was a annoying little kid. She use to chase me around her pool and get me into trouble. I will cherish all the memories that I have of my dear friend. She had a good soul and she left a positive influence on everyone she met. Rest in peace sweet angel, til we meet agin...##imported-begin##Janice DeYampert##imported-end##
