“ Hello Ms. Diane,

My prayers and thoughts are with you as you go through this difficult time. May God bring you peace and comfort.

I love you, TiPree

He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.

“ Dear Bryant family, just a brief encouraging thought I would like to share. As I have received comfort from this Bible verse before, my hope is that you will get comfort as well.
2 Cornithians 1:3,4 tells us to be comforted by the God of all Comfort. As you go forward, always know that you can go to God in prayer with what ever your concerns are.##imported-begin##brenda jackson##imported-end##

“ Diane~

*My thoughts and prayers are with you Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.
May your heart and soul find peace and comfort.
May the blessings of love be upon you,
May its peace abide with you,
May its essence illuminate your heart,
Now and forever more.*

A line, into which you have unconsciously put a little of the genuine feeling that you had for that person, is worth pages of eloquence.

*A letter of condolence may be abrupt, badly constructed, ungrammatical-never mind. Grace of expression counts for nothing; sincerity alone is of value. It is the expression, however clumsily put,
of a personal something which was loved, and will ever be missed, that alone brings solace to those who are left.##imported-

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to your family on the loss of your loved one, Maria. Death is truly mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love so much. (1 Corinthians 15:26) But our Loving Heavenly Father promises to remove the ravages of death and destroy it forever (Isaiah 25:8) He then promises to restore our loved ones (including Maria) to us my means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29; 11:25,26) Mankind will then have the opportunity to live out their days the way God originally intended..."even life forever more". (Psalm 133:4). May your hearts find comfort in God's purposes soon to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Bryant family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
