“ *My sincerest wishes and condolences are with you and yours at this present transition in time. Remember in your deepest moments of grief that one of God's angels has returned to his side, and that death is not to be mourned, but life celebrated.
Love to all,*

“ We send our condolences to all of you. We really appreciated Marie's life, her gift of sharing herself and her home with all of our family and others. We treasure the many visits and talks we had with her. She was a warm, loving and smiling influence in all of our lives. We will always remember her many BBQ's and meals as delicious and full of love. We enjoyed our gardening exchanges and all those smiles she sent from the garden. She was a welcoming friend to my mother when she moved here from California in 1992. We particularly enjoyed her love for all our boys, who are still best friends, Rondall, Joey, Anthony, and Chris. We will miss her. We are proud to have been able to share her lovely life. We will be proud if our lives could be as loving and giving as her.

We loved her, We love you all. Hope that you can stay strong in your hour of sorrow, she would have wanted that.##imported-begin##Donna and Leslie Biederman##imported-end##

“ Be assured that our prayers and all of our love goes out to you at the loss of your mother, Marie. In these troubling times it is always reasonable to ask "why?' Only God knows and He does not make a mistake. Marie has lived a long and fruitful life to which we are all grateful.##imported-begin##Dr. Leslie H. & Mrs. Gaetane T##imported-end##
