“ I will never forget the joy and laughter you gave. The advice no matter how crazy it was at times and at other times it was much needed. Thank God for your life and the times we shared love to the family always.

“ Marlene, you will dearly be missed. I remember our early morning chats and how we would try to jog each other memories sometimes of certain students or events that happened when we were students attending Hutchins Middle School. I remember you teasing me of being so much older than you because my birthday was one day before yours. Physically gone out of our lives but forever in our hearts.##imported-begin##Rozenna Nathan##imported-end##
