“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Botello. I am lucky enough to have Ta'Yonna in my classroom this year. Both her and her sister Bre'Onna are smart, caring, and hard working little girls. I am very proud of both of them! I hope that the family continues to support one another and remember all of the wonderful memories you have together as a family.##imported-begin##Allison Youngs- 2nd Grade Teacher at Myers Elementary School##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Botello. May God bless Ms. Evans, as she mourns the loss of her daughter, and embarks on the difficult journey of caring for her grandchildren. I am fortunate to have had Ms. Botello's oldest daughter, Ta'Yonna, in my class one year. Through my interactions with Ms. Botello, it was very clear to me that she LOVED her daughters more than anything, and wanted only the best for them. Ta'Yonna and Bre'Onna are smart, beautiful little girls. I pray that friends and family will continue to support them and love them, throughout their young lives, in honor of their mother.##imported-begin##Susan Oswald- Teacher @ Myers Elementary, Taylor, MI##imported-end##

“ Words cannot say how sorry I am that another family has to go through this type of tragedy. I don't know this family, but like many others, I was touched by the story. May God Bless these little girls, and give them the strength and courage that they are going to need to move on with their lives. 6 and 8 is way to young to have to live the rest of their lives without their mother, but I am sure, their family will give them all the support and comfort they will need.##imported-begin##Tina Whitfield##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Monica. I did not know her personally. But, the tragedy hurts the hearts of many. Especially, the bravery of her daughters. We are all precious in God's eyes. In the bible, Jehovah God promises everlasting life. He always tells the truth, he does not lie. Monica can rest now from all her suffering, pain and struggles. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way, nor for us to suffer. The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. Death we hate it, but it is there. 1 Corinthians 15:26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing). Isaiah 26:19 "your dead ones will live ...they will rise up". We WILL be reunited with our loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future. John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous".##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ My sweet & beautiful Monica you will be missed. My heart aches for Tayonna & Brianna sooo much. I pray that you are at peace in the Lord's house and your little angels left behind will be safe under the Lord's watchful eye. No one can explain why such violence must exist in our world and befall on the innocent. I will pray for God's comfort to encompass your family. To Alice and all your family I am truly sorry for your loss and pain. May the Lord be with you all. Love Kim, Kyle, Kurtis and Christian.##imported-begin##Kim Miller##imported-end##

“ To the Botello Family: May I first offer my sincere condolences on the death of your precious one, Monica. The Bible teaches us that in this life, this system of things, that sometimes we will experience unexpected and sometimes very devastating things. it says (in part) at Ecclesiastes 9:11 that... "time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all." The Bible book of James, chapter 4, verse 17 teaches us (in part) that... "you do not know what your life will be tomorrow." But, death, however it comes, at any time or at any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those whom we love so dearly. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has promised to destroy this enemy...death.. forever! (1Cor.15:26). Jehovah is the Source of Life...not death! (Psalm 36:9). Life, as it is now...today...is not what He intended. Everything beautiful comes from Him (James 1:17). Death is not beautiful and therefore does not originate with God (Hebrews 2:14). Our Loving God has already made provisions to correct this issue and promises a resurrection for all those who have died (Acts 24:15, John 5:28 & 29). And, He also promises that soon "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death (no matter the cause) will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:4) Yes, those promises are yet to be fulfilled, but it won't be long now. Jehovah God yearns to restore life to all who have died, including Monica (Job 14:14,15). May His Words of Truth bring you comfort as you look to the future with confidence knowing that He will do all that He has promised because he cares so dearly for you (1Peter 5:7) and all of us, and because He is a God that does not lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Family of TaYonna and BreOnna,

The Myers School Community would like to tell you how much we love and care about the girls and their family. You have our heartfelt sorrow in the loss of your loved ones. Our prayer is that the girls will get all the help they will need to heal from this horrible tragedy. We are willing to assist in any way. Please believe that GOD cares and love you best!

We are so very proud of how well the girls responded on that awful day. We know their Mom and Dad are most proud. They are loved little girls with a bright future ahead of them - no matter how bleak today may seem. You are so blessed to have them, Ms. Evans.

May GOD comfort and keep you all,
