“ Ms. Ozell Aneater James

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. “ Dear James family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Ozell Aneater. I am writing to share with you the bibles hope of a future resurrection. The scripture tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that our "enemy" death will soon be destroyed by God. May the god of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin###Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the James family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin###Ariel###imported-end##
