“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dearest, Pam. We are just a couple of months apart. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28,29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when 'death and pain will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, Luke 23:43.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ Pam: May you take your vibrant personality to the place of eternal life. You finally got your crown in Heaven. God knows you deserve it. It was a pleasure knowing you. I'm so glad you found someone like Mike, to spend you life with. You are loved more than you will ever imagine. Until we meet again, I will see you on the other side. Peace, love, and Happiness.

“ To Pam's family, I send deepest sympathy at this time of loss. Pam will continue to inspire everyone who knew and loved her and we will see her again some day, when God's "kingdom comes on earth as it is in heaven" (Matt. 6:9) She was truly unique and one-of-a-kind! May all those who loved her find comfort in the words of the bible "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." (John 5:28) "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry nor pain be any more." (Revelation 21:3,4) We will see her again!###imported-begin##Jeanne G###imported-end##

“ To the family of Pamela Brown:

I have only had the pleasure of knowing Pam for 3 years since I started working for the PIC Group. She sure was a character, with a real nice smile and one heck of a crazy laugh. On breaks and lunches Mike would pick her up on his work truck, and then when the time came to go home, her chariot awaited her, and she would not have to do that long walk like we all did. I know she loved her son and grandsons very much, talked of them often. She was so excited about her wedding coming up, and talked often about it. She will truly be missed very much. Pam, R.I.P.

Your friend,
