“ It is still hard to believe. Your love of life, your smile and that special feeling that you had about others who needed your help. I am going to miss your giving me updates on your friends and asking, "where is the pop". Those that have been in your life have gained knowledge and wisdom. You gave me knowledge and wisdom with such a great appreciation of life. God Bless you Phyllis. Phyllis, you have only just begun life. your friend, David.##imported-begin##David Jay Parcell##imported-end##

“ Dear Aunty Phyll, I miss you a great deal. We've shared soooo many good laughs over the years. I love you a great deal. As of this Christmas night you are truly the best dancer in the family. You had some of the best chicken by far. You know you were a baby sitting machine, and all it costed was a pepsi and a pack of newports. I was a well rested kid with you putting us to bed by 6pm on some nights. You'll be missed but not forgotten, with love your nephew

“ Hey, "Philip" I already miss you.
I don't have no one to fuss with for kicks anymore.
You were the one who help me raise my children. Oh what a wonderful job, you did. I have two young men in college, thanks to you. You were their second mom. Here's to you. I know that you are there at the Pearly gates, asking the Lord, let me have a drink of Pepsi and a Newport. Of course he says ok, but hurry up Mom and Dad is waiting for you!!!!!!!!!!!!
