“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I pray that a comforting thought from the bible will help ease your pain in this time of need found at Revelation 21: 3, 4.##imported-begin##x##imported-end##

“ To the family of Prevela. I wrote a note last week that didn't get published. Your mother was the sweetest woman. I miss her sing-song "Good Mornin'" greeting. Prevela was a woman with a blessed kindness, yet she could be strong when it was necessary.

I found a way for her to stay warm in the winter while she waited to be picked up from work. She thanked me everyday for the comfort.

We will miss her and the spring-like friendship she gave to each of us.##imported-begin##Randy Ferguson##imported-end##

“ Although nobody denies the certainty of death, what occurs after death can be like a great question mark. In the Scriptures, death is clearly explained. Furthermore, the Bible not only reveals why we die but also explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved ones. Finally it speaks of a momentous time when it will be possible to report: "Death is swallowed up forever."--- 1 Corinthians 15:54. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss.##imported-begin##Debrah Gipson##imported-end##
