I had never met Quadie until 2006 when my Grandmother passed. I was really in a fog at that time, but I do remember Quadie! She was in the kitchen making sure that we all ate and knew that she was there for us. She just oozed love and kindness just like you Gwen. I never saw her again but that one encounter was enough for me to feel the blessing of knowing her! May she rest safely in peace until we meet again! Love you Gwen!!

“ John, Gwen, Tracey and Kennedy

What you may not know is that I've know Quady since she was 12 years old. I could still see the little girl in her and this always gave me a thrill. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord..the Holy Scriptures tells us this, so we know with an assurance that Quady is in a place where she is happy. I mourn your loss with you.

Peace be unto you all##imported-begin##Turhan Turner##imported-end##

*“To love life, to love it even when you have no stomach for it and everything you've held dear crumbles like burnt paper in your hands, your throat filled with the silt of it.
When grief sits with you, its tropical heat thickening the air, heavy as water
more fit for gills than lungs;
when grief weights you like your own flesh only more of it, an obesity of grief, you think, How can a body withstand this?
Then you hold life like a face
between your palms, a plain face,
no charming smile, no violet eyes,
and you say, yes, I will take you
I will love you, again.”*

“ To the Nivins, Starks and Dorman Family

Blessings to all in this hour of your life. Words cannot express what your hearts are expressing at this time of your lost. Please be reminded that God said that He would never leave nor forsake you. Put one foot in front of the other through the strength of God. Lean on Him and He will through all of your tears carry you. Be encouraged in this hour of your lives. He truly cares for you share your thoughts and tears with Him. He is Faithful.

*Blessings in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.
Amen*
