“ Dear Ms. Rose,

Your house was a home away from home. All the games of Go Fish and Speed that you allowed me to play on your front porch with my BFF, Charlisa, til the wee hours of the evening will always be remembered. Thanks for allowing Charlisa to make 1000 trips to the penny-candy store with me. Thanks for asking how my family was doing and for celebrating our milestones. Thanks for watching out for the kids in the neighborhood as we recklessly rode our 10-speeds in the middle of the street. Thanks for making the west end of Flanders street feel like a real neighborhood, real family. Thanks for the memories....I will remember you always. My condolences to your family and all those who remember you fondly.
