“ My family and I were deeply sad to hear about the death of Ms. Ruth. Ms. Ruth Currie was the essence of what it means to be a strong, education and talented black woman as it is the case with her sisters whom I have had the pleasure of meeting. My religious belief is that Ms. Ruth has a wonderful hope of waking up in paradise and never having to say "I am sick" ever again. The Currie family is in my prayers, and I send my love.##imported-begin##Lisa Bonner##imported-end##

“ To Annie and Family,

My heart is heavy to hear of a great loss! Ruthie the singing angel will truly be missed. Bishop Wilson and I feel your pain, for we have walked down the same road this week as we lost a great Man of God. If it brings you any comfort just know to be "absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!" Bishop Wilson, myself and the CCF family is praying for you.##imported-begin##Lady J Wilson##imported-end##

“ JUST WANTED TO PAY MY RESPECTS TO ALL OF THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF RUTH, AS WELL AS THE JAMISON TEMPLE CHURCH FAMILY WHOM I STILL CONSIDER MYSELF TO BE APART OF EVEN THOUGH I LIVE IN WASHINGTON STATE NOW! MY FAMILY STILL ATTENDS THERE! MY AUNT TINA ROBINSON INTRODUCED US THERE SINCE I WAS VERY LITTLE! I KNOW I ALWAYS LOVED SEEING RUTH A CHURCH, AND SHE WAS MY FAVORITE VOICE TO HEAR AT CHURCH! HER VOICE CARRIED, WHETHER IT WAS GIVING DIRECTION, OR AN UPLIFTING SONG! I STILL REMEMBER IN 2004, WHEN I CAME HOME AND I HAD ASKED HER IF SHE COULD SING FOR ME, AND SHE HUMBLY DID ACKNOWLEDGING THAT I LOVED HER VOICE! ALL I KNOW IS THAT IT EFFECTS ME 3,000 MILES AWAY, AND I CAN ONLY PRAY THAT EVERYONE REMEBERS THIS PASSING AND REMEMORIAL AS A TIME OF LOVE AND JOY, AND NOT OF SORROW! I LOVE U RUTH, AND I SEND LOVE TO THE CHURCH AND THE CHURCH FAMILY! GOD BLESS!##imported-begin##Brandon Robinson##imported-end##

“ this goes out to the currie family.words are just an expression of how we feel.this poem sums up what a fabulous women ruth is.It's not a question of now or when,our time together has come to an end.Through the good,the bad,the glad,even the sad,ruth was chosen and all we had.It's difficult for you to face your friends and family here,but one must recall the many times of cheer.Most regret some choices they have made but right or wrong our course is laid.Though it's hard for us to see RUTH go,i had to tell you so you will know.And so today may the winds give you courage to deal with those times of strife,to face them with your head held high and say this too is a part of life.As ruth journey begans at another place,we will never forget her face.so when you look into the sky and you're feeling blue just think of ruth and you will know what to do.##imported-begin##veta and ebony williams ##imported-end##

“ To the whole Currie family, you have my deepest condolences. Aunt Ruth (she was way more like family than just a church member) was such a true sweetheart. It is still hard to come to the fact that she is gone because everytime I think of her I hear her singing. Every one of those songs she sung were powerful and mighty and they were even more mightier because I know she lived what those songs said. On "Praise be To God" she sang the words "although our fathers sinned, god loved us still. My young heart lies within to do thine will". In my eyes that was her life, she knew her earthly purpose and she did gods will. Ruth was a very mighty servant and I just know she is up in heaven with the rest of the angels singing "Happy on my way" because she is no longer in pain. So this is not a time for but celebration, because right now she is in a more better place than we could ever imagine. So family, just hold on. Weeping may endureth for a night, but joy comes in the morning. If anything I can help with, you know im just a shout away!

“ My prayers and condolences to the family. Ruthie as I affectionately called her was like a big sister to me. What ever she asked of me I did without hesitation. I miss my buddy and my heart aches with pain and sadness. The night before Ruthie was called home, I had a dream about her. I rarely dream so it stayed on my mind heavy. I could see Ruthie but only hear my voice repeatedly saying "Oh you are ok" When I awoke that morning I didn't understand the dream so I talked about it all day with friends and co-workers looking for understanding. Then later that day I received the call that Ruthie had gone home. I then realized what Ruthie was telling me that she is ok and I don't have to worry about her any longer. I have comfort in that dream now but I will truly miss my bestfriend. I treasure my memories and my love for Ruthie will never leave me. The last words I heard her say to me were that she loved me too and I will let that ring into my heart until we see each other again. I love you Ruthie. “ To the Currie family:

I first met Ruth a little over two years ago through a mutual friend, when she was kind enough to lend her beautiful voice to the services at my brother's funeral (whom she did not know). I don't recall paying her, unless my friend did, she was that kind of person. She touched every member of my family even though most never met her. Since that day whenever I saw her she was always a light. Even during her illness, it was always a joy to be around her; her beautiful smile and spirit were hard to miss. She always gave of herself. Even as her own health was failing, she was kind enough to come to the hospital and pray for me during my own recent illness. It is always difficult to say goodbye to that kind of soul, and I'm sure she will be missed by those who knew her well, and those of us who only recently met her. I offer my condolences to your family. I don't know if I will be able to say goodbye in person, but wanted to let you know that your family is in my heart and prayers at this most difficult of times.

“ As a child I grew up under Rev. Jamison and the Jamison Temple church family. One of my biggest memories of Ruth was when she would sing "Happy On My Way". she would sing this song with everything in her you could truly see the light of God shining through her. After years of me watching Ruth sing this song I can honestly say this was not just a song to her she lived every word of this song..she was definetly happy, always singing, shouting, and praising. Now I guess its time for Ruth to live the other half of this song (which was my favorite part)..we know that she's happy,singing and shouting now its time for her to tell her story. To the family I can't imagine what your going through I know it must be hard to lose someone as special as Ruth Currie but remember God makes no mistakes and He definetly won't put more on you than you can bear. My prayers are with you and I know that Ruth will always be in your heart now just let some of that of that Love that Ruth had for God shine through you as your biggest memory of her and I know He'll see you through. Ruth will live in the hearts of the friends she made and be known for the foundation she laid, because goodness and fairness never die- they go shining on like sun in the sky, just Honor and Truth endure forever, death is powerless to destroy or to sever...So Ruth's gallant soul has taken a flight into a land where there is no night, Ruth is not dead, she has only gone on to a brighter, more wonderful dawn. “ To the Currie Family and to Jamison Temple; my family. God will strengthen us during this time. The bonds of our love has inspired me to write this in remembrance of Ruthie. Kim *****

A SONGBIRD'S MEMORIES

By Kim Mackie-Austin

While yet a child, Ruthie, asked the Lord Jesus, “Savior like a Shepherd Lead Me,” “Precious Lord,” always keep me, In your tender loving care.
As the years went by, “Through It All,” Ruthie, continued in the “Lord’s Prayer,
Knowing that “You Gotta Friend in Jesus.” he’s ever present everywhere.

Amazing Grace, allowed her to enjoy the desires of her heart,
Ruth “Counted It A Privilege to Call on his Name” from the very start
Ruth, was often the family’s “Bridge Over Troubled Water”
So, “Every time she felt the Spirit Moving in her Heart,” she prayed;
Learning to bind satan, Up and Out of the way.

Then “Jesus’ Love would Bubble Over in her Soul”
She sang, “Take me Higher Lord, take me Higher,”
In you Lord, where your mysteries unfold
Take me Higher Lord Take me Higher,”
Where your hand, I’ll forever hold.

Throughout her profession, she always gave a helping hand
Being an example to others, how in Jesus, we Must STAND.

When the doctor’s report was discouraging, she remembered the song
In her Spirit, Ruth, loudly resounded, “I Still Love the Name of Jesus.”

“I’m encouraged to go through and continue to hold on.

*As she became more ill, she remembered her song
"His Eye is on the Sparrow, and I know he Watches Over Me"
Her Spirit, as usual, was high, as she ministered to her love ones, saying good-bye.
Heaven's view she could now see, as she silently, remembered the words of "Calvary."*

*As she departed, I'm sure she's singing "Happy On My Way"
Praising the Lord, Jesus' Love Just Bubbles Over
In my soul today," going where everyday is now a sunny day.*

"Praise Be To God, Praise Be To God" "I'm Happy On My Way!!"###imported-begin##John and Kim Austin ##imported-end##
