“ Words can NEVER express what Grandma Louise meant to us. She watched me blossom from a girl to a mother. She taught me how to love a strong Black man, and how to be a strong Black woman. Grandma was my Grandma away from Hawaii. Grandma loved us like we were her flesh and blood! I will never forget the countless conversations we had about spirituality, womanhood, love, and motherhood. I am truly blessed to have seen Grandma Louise this summer and all those hours with her and Easton. Easton says she is with our Uncle Chris now...

Easton, her "rock", will be raised knowing of her love for him. I will keep all of her family in my daily prayers for the strength to cope with this earthly loss, but a gain in heaven. We will once again see her, welcoming us into the gates of Heaven. I love you Grandma Louise...say HI to my Grandma Vicky for me--- you both will have alot to talk about!!
