*I'm praying for your family during your time of sorrow. May God be the source of your strength with each passing day. May God be the pillar you lean on when you feel discourge and question why. For in Matthew 5:4 it is stated Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted. Comfort you shall have with family, friends and strangers keeping you in prayer.##imported-begin##Lois

“ Ms. Johnson please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Jesus said that in my fathers house are many mansions and if it was not so I would have told you. Know that Shannon has walked on the streets of gold in heaven and has opened the door to enter her mansion. I pray that God will bless and continue to keep you.##imported-begin##Annette Bailey-Melrose Square ##imported-end##

“ "God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging" Psalm 46:1-3

Dear Family Members, Now may feel like a time when the earth has given way and the mountains have been cast into the sea. God knows and cares about your sorrow and will cover you with his love, strength, and peace. At times like these, let your souls say with King David, "My soul finds rest in God alone; my salvation comes from him. He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will never be shaken". Psalm 62:1-2 When God is your portion, He is all that you need and He will sustain you through the most challenging trials. Only go to him in your sorrow and pain and know that He ever cares for you. I am praying for your peace and encouragement in the midst of this very difficult storm.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult time. I can't begin to imagine what you are feeling, but I know a God who is a God of all comfort. My prayer is that God will strenghten you and your family and bring you peace that only he can. I pray that you will embrace his love through the many acts of kindness that are being extended to you even know by friends and family. I pray that the love of Jesus and memory of Shannon will be a constant source of encouragement in the days, weeks, months, and years to come. (Friend of Aquilla)###imported-begin###Mrs. Rubbie J. “ Our condolences go out to you and yours on the loss of your loved one. Although I've never met Shannon, I have met Aquila, who is my fellow SC native and I know that the love runs deep. Our prayer go out to the family during this grievous time, which only time can heal. Shannon will live on as long as we continue to love and believe in family and God's love. Just remember: "This too shall pass.”

“ I received this email from my dear friend Chandra Sawyer-Pearson about the tragedy you have experienced in your family. I know what you are going through having lost my father to emphysema, my mother and brother was murdered and a sister to aids. I tell you that it is very easy to question God when we are experiencing so much pain and hardache. I too was very angry at God for a long time and held so much unforgiveness and in my heart. But I am so grateful to God for his complete deliverance from the chains of unforgiveness and anger. It was as if he walked inside of me healed every hurt and pain. He totally and completely made me over to the point where I found myself praying for God to have mercy on the man that murdered my loved ones. ONLY GOD! Just keep praying for deliverance of your loved ones and God will break that generational chain of unforgiveness. Just know that you are not alone in your prayers. I'll be praying with you and for you. ONLY GOD!!!!##imported-begin##Cynthia McIlwain##imported-end##

“ To Shawn and the family of Shannon, I cannot begin to imagine the hurt and sorrow you are experiencing. Shannon was always one of God's angels, the only difference now, is that she got her wings and flies with him. It is your obligation to her and to HIM the Giver of Life, to remain close as a family and to love and cherish the moments you had with Shannon. Live every day to the fullest so her soul can smile and be proud of all of you. It is our obligation as friends of the family to console you during these trying days. I offer my consolation to you all. May Jesus Christ, our Savior, carry and bless you through this. May the earth that will cover Shannon be as light as feathers. May Shannon's memory be eternal and shed the light of heaven upon you all. Love, Kleo (DMC)###imported-begin###Kleo###imported-end##

“ My deepest prayers go out to her family!!! My heart was devastated when I heard the news. She was a wonderful young lady to work with in the CE Division at WCCCD where she was a workstudy. I always complimented her on her boots and coats! She loved shoes and we talked about that alot!!! We had laughs together at work and I always encouraged her to stay in school!!!! GOD IS STILL GOD AND HE KNOWS THE HURT AND TO DIONE MY PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU!
