“ Even though I only knew and worked with Shenandoah for a short period of time, during that time I found her to be an exceptional person, both in work ethics and friendship. She always had a smile on her face and a willingness to help. May her spirit live on in the memories of those that knew and loved her.##imported-begin##Viola Taylor##imported-end##

“ Once in a while, a friend comes along who changes things. She makes your heart more thankful, your laughter a little easier, and your life that much sweeter. There's a joy in friendship only God can give and Shenandoah you've shown just how wonderful that can be.

II Timonthy 4:6-8, For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. See you later.

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the death of your dear loved one, Shenandoah. It's very difficult most times to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too. What words can one say to comfort you that will ease the pain in your hearts? I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelation 21:4 where our Loving God Jehovah has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. May you keep God's promises close to your hearts in the days ahead knowing that all things will take place exactly as promised by him. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I want to express my deepest sympathy to your family in your time of grief. Please find comfort in the words that Jesus said at John 5:28,29; Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (29) and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.##imported-begin##Lisa##imported-end##
