“ Dearest Davis family, I am saddened to learn of the loss of your loved one. I encourage you to turn to the scriptures for comfort. At Isaiah 25:8 it assures us that "He will swallow up death forever..." May we all look forward to that wonderful promise and many others that are recorded in Jehovah's Holy Scriptures. Please accept my heartfelt condolences.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ To the family: I woul like to express my sincere condolence for the loss of you love one. May you find comefort, during this time of mourning, in persistent prayers as, "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and your mental powers." (Philippians 4:7) I certainly hope in knowing that care will make a difference at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##
