“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Theresa. It's difficult most times to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too, but what words can we say to ease your pain? I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelations 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead knowing that our Loving God will truly keep his word to us and all that he has promised will come true. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
