“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##susan##imported-end##

“ A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14). Throughout the Bible, the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy. If death could keep us in bondage forever, it would be stronger than our Grand Creator, Jehovah God. Death is no match for our creator, who is the source of life (Psalm 36:9). He has already made provision to eliminate death forever! (1 Cor. 15:26). As for our loved ones who have died, God has promised us that they will not be forsaken, John 5:28, 29 the "hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out". Yes, that time is yet before us, but not far off (Acts 24:15). Even though your hearts are breaking, know that you will see Ms. Pearson again. Everlasting life was promised in the beginning and will come true. May you find comfort in the God of all comfort. Put faith in His Word knowing that he truly cares about us (1Peter 5:7) and all that Jehovah has promised...He will do. He cannot lie. (2Cor.1:2-4), (Titus 1:2).##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ Dear Dianne,
I was very saddened to hear about the passing of your daughter, Valonda. While I knew that she was quite ill, I was still upset to hear about her death. Please know that I think of you and your family often and pray for all of you. I will continue to do so and I shall ask the good Lord to keep you in the palm of his hand as you go through this very difficult time of grief. Love you and God bless all of you.

“ Dianne and Family,

Our prayers and thoughts are with you this day. The sky is a little brighter tonight, for the Lord our Savior has called home our shining star. In my visits with Valonda, I was amazed on how she didn't focus on herself, but was always thinking of others. To hear my friend laugh was always a joy. May God embrace her, and welcome her Home! May our Lord bless all of Valonda's family with peace, love, and strength to carry this cross of loss. Remember, He came to save us from sin, and award us everlasting life in His Kingdom!

May Christ's peace be with you, and may His face shine upon you. May the light of our Lord shine upon the soul of our dear Valonda now and forever. Amen.

Peace.###imported-begin##Don & Gail Esler###imported-end##
