“ My heart breaks at the thought of such a beautiful soul leaving this earth. Yet, I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. May the Holy Spirit dwell in your heart through this dark valley. May He lift you all up and comfort your storm tossed souls. Know that I love you all and will keep you in my prayers through this time of grief and mourning.

“ Dear Cousins:

Carrie, Kim, K.K., Carmaine, and Stacy as well as all of the other family, may God be with you all in this hour. Ronnie is such a wonderful spirit. She will always be with us. Even though I have not seen you all in years I still remember the good old days in Detroit. Ronnie's beautiful smile. Oh yes, she had it TOGETHER! She was a true "GO-GETTER. I regret not being able to come to Detroit for the service. Just know that I am praying and will continue to pray for uplifting in this troubling Hour.

“ My dear family, Aunt Carrie, Kim, K. K., I love you and although I was able to be with you in person, my personal thoughts and prayers are with you at this very hour. I feel a connection and my heart is filled with sadness. However, I realize that this is a day that we must be ready for because there is not a set time for us except by the mercies and grace of God. Her smile told a story and all we must do is to continue to smile and know that God love her best. With these words, I pray for continous love and comfort for her children, mother, and sisters, as well as her closest friends.##imported-begin##Judy McNeal Brown##imported-end##

“ Dear Holloway Family,
I am so sorry for the lost of your loved one! The messages left on this page really shows she was someone special. She was loved by so many! It reminds me of a scripture Eccles. 7:1 which says "A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one's being born." Upon first reading this scripture it seems odd. But it explains our name when first born holds no weight. But when we develop as an adult, we are given a chance to become the kind of person that God loves and that people love. Your loved one has made such a name. So Jehovah makes a promise to all who have a good name with him at Jonn 5:28, 29. Reading this scripture, i hope, will bring you great comfort!###imported-begin###Valerie###imported-end##

“ I regret the passing of my first cousin who was like a sister to me, because when I left Georgia to go to Michigan to live with her family, she was just a little girl 4 or 5 years old. I baby sat her and her siblings many times, and spent much time with her as she grew up. I always felt like a part there family. Her mother (Carrie Ussery) is my mother's baby sister. I will always carry the love for her in my heart. Love always "Harold Parrish"###imported-begin###Harold Parrish###imported-end##

“ I have only known Veronica for 1 1/2 years when she was ready to relocate to San Antonio. I instantly made a new friend and I shared my love for Texas with her. After she moved here we went to a Pow Wow and a bull riding competition in the Texas Hill Country. We took a Florida vacation in Orlando last September, and celebrated Fiesta in San Antonio just last April. I enjoyed sharing her with my family as they also got to know her. I will miss her smiling eyes, and my heart is heavy for losing a good friend.##imported-begin##Sharon Cusmano##imported-end##
