“ Wyma and I were close friends though school and part of our adult life. I moved to Virgin Islands and then to Florida and didn't see her often but she was still a good friend. We would talk on the phone or I would stop by sometime when I visited my mom. Then I lost her number and address. I always thought about her when I came to town and tried to find the house with no luck. I knew her family well Mr&Mrs Warren, grandmother. I remember her father and grandmother passed. I remember her brother whom everyone called Man. And her sis. Gloria.

I decided to look on the internet for Wyma's address and was shock to find her obituary instead. My friend, whom I missed very much, passed away 13 years ago and I didn't even know. She died the same year as my mom died.

Even though it's been 13 years I hope this reaches the family anyway to let them know how sorry I am for her death and that I was not there before she passed away. My deepest deepest sympathy to Glorie and Man. I will continue thinking of her every time I come back to Detroit 😭😭

“ Until That Day

*Until that day I'll think of you,
the love we shared, the memories too.*

*Until that day I'll think of you,
I'll try so hard in all I do.*

*Until that day I'll find out why,
you had to leave with no "goodbye".*

*Until that day this is so,
your family misses you, more than you'll know.*

*Until that day You'll be with him,
your God, your Savior, and new best friend.*

*Until that day I see you there,
you're in my heart, you're everywhere.*

Until that day.##imported-begin##Adrienne Roby##imported-end##

“ May God provide you with support and comfort during these difficult times.

Wyama was a devoted, caring and loving person who always put her family first. Wyama was the ultimate medical professional. Her years of service and dedication to the medical field was one to be admired.

I will always remember the times we laughed and smiled about so many family jokes and the happy times.

Wyama will always be remembered and loved by those that knew her. Rest in peace and God help this family during these very, very difficult times.

Loving this family forever..
