“ I met Mrs. Hawkins in person once, many years ago. But I've met her spirit many times through the life of her daughter, my sister friend, Tamara Anderson. I am sure Mrs. Hawkins is the source from whence Tamara, and no doubt Tiara, get their strength, their endurance, their pulchritude, and their "quick to tell it like it is" attitude. And I am sure they get their faith from the same place Mother Hawkins got hers. God! What an awesome legacy this woman leaves behind. I extend my deepest condolences and sincere prayers for the family. Many things about tomorrow, we don't seem to understand. But we know who holds tomorrow and we know who holds our hand. Many blessings to you, Tamara and family. Be encouraged; heaven is a far better place than this.

“ Words cannot express how I feel about Mrs. Myrtle Lee Hawkins. She came into my life when I was twelve years old, and made an IMMEDIATE impact. As the Executive Assistant to the President of the Metro Detroit AFL-CIO, (my father) she not only managed this power house of an Organization, but because my mother was ill most of the time, she guided me through the most difficult time in my young life. Through teenage peer pressure, I dropped out of high school, and she kicked my butt right back in. She saw me through graduation, and was a great assistance to me during my college enrollment process. She was also very instrumental in my graduating from college. In short, I probably would have never made it successfully in life without her guidance. She truly made me the man that I am today. I will LOVE her forever and a day! R.I.P. my mother, until I see you again. Love, your other Son Michael.

“ I love you Momma - YOU ARE MY SHERO!!!

Although - my heart is broken and missing the most important piece -YOU, I know God didn't bring me this far to leave me, even though this pain is like no other pain I've ever felt before and it is penetrating through my SOUL!!! However, I take comfort in knowing that you are at Peace and in a much better place with your heavenly father and your loving husband/our dad Eternally and Forever.

I know that my life will never be the same without you, but it is soooo much better because of you.

I am so glad, grateful and blessed that God gave you Me and that He gave me You. Everything I am is because of you and I will forever be grateful for all of your teachings. I will always hold you close to my heart MOMMA and I will always HONOR you. I hope and pray that you knew how much I loved you and how much I always will.

You done your time, you paid your dues, you left it all out there - now your journey is complete.

Gone, but never Forgotten.....

LOVE YOU ALWAYS & FOREVER MOMMA

Mama Myrt, it's 3am and I'm sitting here heartbroken and relived all at the same time. I'm heartbroken that I won't be able to laugh and talk and just have simple, educated, insightful conversations with you anymore. I'm relived that you you feel no pain and no more suffering as well. I thank you so much for loving me as if I was your very own. You feed, cheered, lead, encouraged and yes, even disciplined me when I needed it most. As I continue to wipe these tears from my face, I also smile because of all the good times we all shared as a family. I have no regrets because you knew how much you meant to me and I knew how much you loved me as well. That is something, possibly the only thing, that I'll continue to draw strength from. This won't be easy for many, but if we all learned anything from you it's to stand tall and as firm as possible and to carry on without hesitation! I'll never stop listening to your voice, it'll continue to guide me and I'll never forsake my promise to you. I'll never stop missing you Ma and I'll love you with all of my being for eternity.

Your other son, Carl
