

Ms. Nancy Mae Wilson

October 15, 1931 - August 20, 2015

Her Journey:

Nancy Mae Wilson was born October 15, 1931, in Vicksburg, Mississippi to the union of Alfred and Cora Wilson. She made her transition on Thursday, August 20, 2015 in Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, Michigan. Her parents and siblings Gloria Johnson, and Ruth Erves preceded her in death.

She accepted Christ and was baptized at Springhill Missionary Baptist Church in Vicksburg, Mississippi. She was an active member of the church choir.

Nancy was also one of the lead singers in the well-recognized singing group "The Springhill Specials." One of her favorite songs that she led was, "Don't You Know God is Able?"

Nancy was educated in the public schools system of Vicksburg, Mississippi. She graduated from Bowman High School and did further studies at the Southern Christian Institute in Edwards, Mississippi.

Nancy moved to Detroit, Michigan and joined Christian Community Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Gooch. Later, she joined New Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Lawrence London where she served until her illness prevented her from doing so.

Nancy's greatest joy was taking care of others. She took pleasure in making sure you were fed and healthy. She worked for The Budd Company for many years until she retired.

Nancy had a heart full of love for God, her family, friends and everyone who came in contact with her. She was known for her great cooking, especially neck bones, beans, corn bread and macaroni. Speaking her mind will always be remembered as her distinct characteristic. She had a special laugh which was all her own. She endured as a good soldier while keeping a beautiful smile, vibrant spirit and a warm heart, until she went to be with the Lord.

"Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gate."

We praise her in the gate today as friends and loved ones assemble to pay homage to a life well lived.
