“ Nancy...I know your grandfather was so very proud of the young woman you have become. He knew you would look out for him and that you loved him very much. You gave him his "flowers and coffee" while he could still see and smell them....that's a good thing. Stand tall and continue to be strong....remember God never gives you more than you can bear"...also remember you are your grandfather's "precious granddaughter" and you learned a lot from him. You and your family were blessed to have such a wonderful person in your lives. Continued prayers go out to all of you.
