“ I will always remember Nathaniel's smiling face as he entered Vandenberg each morning after exiting the bus. He was a polite, young gentleman at all times. He was so proud of his Sponge Bob hat and wore it every day, whether it be cold or hot outside. Every time I hear or see Sponge Bob, memories of Nathaniel will come to me. My prayers are being sent to his family, and may the Lord grant them strength at this time. Mrs. Gabbana

“ Natey Nate (as I would call him), you were such a sweet boy! I will miss seeing you come down the hall every morning. I'm happy I had the opportunity to be your (1st grade) teacher. I learned a lot from you! To the rest of the family...I have no words good enough to express my sorrow for you. May God help you through this tough time.
