

Mr. O'Neal Dandridge

July 22, 1957 - August 29, 2014

The Life and Legacy of O'Neal Dandridge:

O'Neal Dandridge was born on July 22, 1957 in Detroit, Michigan to Bertha and Matthew Dandridge. O'Neal was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system. He graduated from Mackenzie High School in June 1974. He continued his education at Mississippi Valley State University.

In 1978, O'Neal started his career at Chrysler Corporation where he worked, with his mother. He retired from Chrysler after 25 years of service.

In June 1980, O'Neal married the love of his life Mattie Sashington. To this wonderful union their only child L'Oreal was born June 29, 1984.

O'Neal was an intellectual, he was a great conversationalist. He loved and enjoyed his family. He was a loving father to his daughter. They were extremely close, and loved each other dearly. O'Neal was close to all his siblings especially his only sister Diane. He was a loving husband to his wife. He was a great father to his nephew Matthew Dandridge after the passing of his brother Dennis. To those he loved, they loved him more, because he always made them feel special.

O'Neal was raised at Holy Cross Missionary Baptist Church where he attended regularly. O'Neal renewed his relationship with Jesus Christ in 2005.

He became an avid reader of the Bible. One of his favorite Bible verses is John 14:27, Peace I leave with you; my (own) peace I now give and bequeath to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be afraid (Stop allowing yourselves to be agitated and disturbed; and do not permit yourself to be fearful and intimated and cowardly and unsettled) AMP version.

“ Dear Dandridge family, I am so sorry for your loss. I would just like to leave you with a brief encouraging message from the bible found at 1 corinthians 15 : 26 where it says, " And the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. " May God's word bring you comfort in this difficult time.
