“ My bonus dad was a quiet man. He had a warm presence that spoke volumes. I became part of the Harrison family through my best friend, (from middle school) Margo. I never heard him yell or say an unkind word. He always made me feel welcome. His kindness didn't need many words; it was felt in the way he treated the ones he loved. I will always remember the warmth and quiet strength he shared. Rest peacefully, dad. Love you!

“ Mr Lee, Mr Lee, you were truly one of a kind. Growing up I know when you counted heads and kept getting 8 you probably wanted to say when are you going home lol. You allowed me to sit at your table and treated me like I was one of your kids. I remember walking down the street with my brand new coach duffle bag and when I got to the house you said “I bet you don’t have a dollar in it!” I said I sure don’t lol and you said “and that makes sense to you” and we laughed lol. Thank you so much for all the memories and all the laughs, going to momma’s won’t be the same but you will forever be remembered.

“ As a teenager, the Harrison home was my second home. I stayed over there!!! I was treated just like one of their own kids. Through the years there was love and laughter in that house on Mansfield. I will miss Mr. Harrison’s sense of humor and the calm energy he radiated just by being present. He was apart of the village that raised me and I’m forever grateful for being included in the family. I am praying for comfort and peace, as we had hoped we had more time. I love you all! ❤️

“ I want to thank god for my brother Lee. God sent him to me. He was kind, considerate and loving. Never said a bad word about anyone. I'm proud to have had him as my older brother. Whom I looked up too. I will never forget you and you will always be in my heart. Save  a set of wings for me. Love Rabbit

“ Remembering Grandpa means remembering how quiet he was. How calm he was. How still he was in my eyes. Grandpa was a very laid back individual, to sum it up. But when he spoke, we were all listening. I'll always remember waking up to Grandpa fixing breakfast and specifically some delicious cheesy eggs. I'm one of his eldest grandkids now, but I do remember being one of his babies for a while. I wish I had more opportunities to spend time with you, Grandpa. But I know that you are free. Love you so much!

“ One funny memory I have is when I was 19 years old I had a 1987 Monte Carlo LS my headlight went out so I was in the backyard changing it and here comes dad ... what you doing there Young blood (with a smirk on his face) I said changing my headlight, with a look of confusion on his face he said you got enough sense to do that..my dad wasn't the kind of man that say I love you he was a man's man he showed you better than he could tell you and I knew but in the end my father did things his way which was the only way for him I miss you and love you your son Andre ❤️

“ Dad, I will miss all of those very loud obnoxious jokes. I always knew when talking to you a good laugh was sure to follow. 😊 Even when you were sick in the hospital, you were in a lot of pain, but still had a good sense of humor. ❤️
