

Mr. Octavius LaRonn Packnet Sr.

March 20, 1971 - March 19, 2014

His Journey:

Octavius LaRonn Packnet Sr. was born March 20, 1971 in Detroit, Michigan to Renee Packnet and Larry Page.

Octavius accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at the early age of six at Bethel Temple Baptist Church in Detroit, Michigan.

Octavius was known by many names to all of those who loved and knew him: Future, Taye, Ron and his favorite of all J.J., just to name a few.

J.J. was employed at Page's in Farmington Hills, Michigan as a chef. Throughout his life he worked at many different establishments as a cook and a chef. After his family, cooking was his second love.

J.J. had two beautiful kids, T'nyra and Omarius, with the love of his life, Latoria Culver. He was a very loving and caring father who did all he could for his children.

One of his favorite pastimes was to go to the casino and play Black Jack. When no one could find J.J., we knew the casino had him.

Octavius departed this life on March 19, 2014, one day shy of his 43rd birthday.
