“ To the entire Phipps family: I met Charles through bowling on Sunday afternoons he was a very funny and outgoing person. He had a big heart that I will always remember him making someone laugh. I will continue to keep the entire family in my prayers. Always remember him through his son's. John ver.1-3 Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. An if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto me; that where I am, there ye may be also.##imported-begin##Kenyatta Stovall##imported-end##

“ To the family: I was deeply saddened to learn of your loss. I know Charles from high school. Although I did not attend King with him, I did work with him at McDonald's. He was truly a fun-loving person, sure to bring joy to any situation. My prayers are with your family during this time. May you find strength in God and continue to be uplifted by your memories of Charles. Be Blessed.##imported-begin##Danielle Davis##imported-end##

“ I just wanted to offer my prayers of sympathy to the family. Chuck and I became friends as we bowled in the same league on Sundays. He had a special, sweet spirit that is going to live forever. Please know that the Lord is watching over your family and will not leave or forsake you.##imported-begin##Laeki Hester##imported-end##

“ To the Family: I know your son from highschool, and I just saw him about 2weeks ago, so my heart is very saddened for your sudden loss. My prayers are with you. I ask that God comfort & keep you in this time of sorrow. Only His comfort can get you through this. And to Mrs Phipps(wife): Please remember that the Lord has not left you this day without a close relative (Ruth4:14), Your new baby son is the celebration of life that will help Charles' memory to live on, so please know that GOD WILL get you through this, and my prayer is that the Holy Spirit will ALWAYS be your comforter.
Love, Darcelle Carson, a longtime friend of Charles' from highschool###imported-begin###Darcelle Carson###imported-end##
