

Mrs. Oila Williams

February 28, 1939 - October 29, 2018

Her Story:

Oila Williams was born to the union of Clay and Luvenia Williams in Round Pond, Arkansas. Affectionally and better known as lola, was the fifth oldest child of nine siblings. At an early age, Oila's family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where she attended Cleveland Public schools. After high school graduation, Oila furthered advanced her education by attending Beatrice School of Cosmetology where she obtained her license as a Beautician. Oila accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age at one of Cleveland's C.O.G.I.C. churches under Elder Perry.

While attending a christian dinner in 1959, John Williams had the pleasure of sitting next Oila. The two dated for a year and decided to wed on April 2, 1960. After marriage, John and Oila relocated to Detroit, Michigan where she became the mother to Brenda and Richard Williams. Oila continued her career as a Beautician and pursued a career in Food Service for Detroit Public Schools, where she retired in 2002 as a Food Service Technician Manager.

Oila was multifaceted; her talents were vast. She mastered skills in cooking, floral arrangements, jewelry making, fur crafting, millenary such as pattern drafting, sewing and ceramics. Oila was very active at Whitlock Memorial, where she was a Missionary and instructed the "Purity" class. She also participated in other church functions, always ready and willing to step in and make things better.

On Monday October 29, 2018, Oila went home.

Previous Events

Family Hour

Saturday, Nov. 17. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Whitlock Memorial COGIC
6000 Epworth
Detroit, MI 48210

Funeral Service

Saturday, Nov. 17. 11:00 AM (ET)

Whitlock Memorial COGIC
6000 Epworth
Detroit, MI 48210

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Oila Williams

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM