Rhonda, please know that I sincerely pray for you and your family. I truly have first hand experience when it comes to have to bear witness of the transition of one's Mother. Know with a tremendous degree of certainty that she is resting in the comforting arms of our Lord and Savior where she is no longer dealing with any pain or stress. Also realize that she is waiting patiently to be reunited with you and your kin in heaven. I pray for you and yours daily during this difficult time. Brother James
