“ Oliver & I spoke often via phone; I already miss that connection. I knew him over 40 years. He was a special & unique man in many ways. He was brilliant, inventive, creative, determined. He was deeply concerned about others & reached out to help people when ever & where ever he could. Many times he would assist a stranger who had car trouble in tough winter weather & when they offered him money, he always said "No thanks; just please pay it forward." - years before that became a catch phrase. I learned a lot from him & I thank him & God for all we shared & still share. Rest in Peace.

“ My sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one Oliver. May it comfort you to know that God the Creator of life has resurrected humans in the past and he will do it again. Acts 24:15. He longs to bring back those in his memory like Oliver and to see them live on earth again in paradise conditions. Job14:14,15,
