

Mrs. Ollie Daniels

April 10, 1928 - October 27, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Our precious Princess Ollie Mae Daniels made her transition peacefully surrounded by many glorious spiritual loved ones who welcomed her home the morning of October 27, 2022.

Ollie Mae was born on April 20, 1928 in Aikens, South Carolina to the late John and Mary Prescott. She was one of ten children and later moved to Detroit, MI when she was just six months old. Ollie attended Lincoln High School in Ferndale, MI and graduated class of 1946. She worked as a factory worker and retired from General Motors.

One thing everyone knows about Princess Daniels' is she's a fighter not just physically, but she knew her way around a bible and would defend this spiritual teaching any time and any day!

Princess Daniels was involved in many things throughout her life, but her greatest accomplishment was at the age of five. She and her mother (Mary Prescott) joined the Universal Hagar Spiritual Church in 1934 under Reverend Walker at Temple No. 7 in Detroit, MI. Ollie joined the Alter Staff at the age of seven and then the Virgin Staff at twelve. She was the second group of Virgins to be recruited by Father Hurley to serve on the staff. Father Hurley gave her the nickname "Scotty", but her spiritual name is "Charity". She was a graduate of the Hagar School of Mediumship and psychology and was a member of the Royal Chapter of the Knights of All Seeing Eye.

Over the many years being a diligent worker within the church Princess

Daniels held the positions of local secretary to the Sunday School, taught HYPUs, and was the National Secretary to the medium league, the Divine Guide for the Worthy Knights and Divine Guide of the Royal Knights. She was appointed Assistant State Mother of Michigan and moved into the position of State Mother. She was President of the Women's Convention for 10 years under Georgia Latimer. She was ordained and served in the capacity for many years. She was a member of the Wiseman Board, and the list goes on.

At the age of 22 she met and married Loris W. Daniels and even though she has no biological children, she is a LOVING and GREAT aunt and mother to many.

Eight siblings preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her loving memories her youngest brother James Woods and a host of family and friends.
