“ Dear Gwen and Leonard, John 14:16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Amen.

We were "in-laws" but Aunt Ollie was MY AUNT OLLIE. I would call her over the years just to say hi and she gave me the warmest response " Hi Baby!" I will always remember her often and fondly. Never will I forget her advice: If ever you are in a heated discussion, sip some water - don't swallow, she said...it takes two to argue!

*MY COUSIN GWEN, I am a phone call away. Forever Cousins!
Love to you all from Sharon, Bryan-Charles, Austin and Xavier Weatherspoon.*

“Gwen: We were sorry to here of the passing of your mother, our aunt. Please know that your family, on the Wilder side, is thinking of you. You are in our prayers and we know God will see you through. We love you and remember: John 14:1-4 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God believe also in me. 2 My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

*Love your Cousins in Connecticut and New York

*To the Family of Mrs Wilder
We are sending our condolences for the loss of your mother, our dear Ward Street neighbor, mentor, and friend Mrs. and friend, Mrs. Wilder. Your parents were such an inspiration to us when we lived on Ward Street. We loved stopping by and visiting with them as they sat and enjoyed their front porch. Also, thank you for inviting us to your home a few years back. We enjoyed ourselves, as it was a pleasure seeing you again, meeting some of your family members and spending time with your mom. May she continue to rest peacefully.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. 2Cor 1:3,4 helps us to see then in times of distress we need to look to Jehovah God for comfort. He's described as the God of all comfort. I hope this scripture can bring you a bit of comfort in you and your family's time of need.
