“ Peace and Blessings my family.
Just wanted to share some of the fondest memories of cousin Omar. First off, when you were able to get a smile out of him, it lit up the whole room. We had extensive conversations about everything from our children to life in general. He was always so easy going and care free when he was in my presence. Never any negative vibrations or hostility. Just a beautiful soul with a kind heart for his family and those he cared for deeply. He's one of the ones that you'd always keep near no matter the distance. I'm truly going to miss him...his voice, his presence, but most of all, his smile. Love you forever O, your cousin Phat. Until we meet again...Rest Easy my Love.
