

Mrs. Opal Tyson

December 17, 1943 - July 15, 2017

Celebrating the Life Of Opal Dean Tyson:

Opal D. Tyson was born to the union of Samuel and Dorothy Gossett. She accepted Christ at an early age at Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Opal was educated in the Detroit Public School system. She graduated from Eastern High School in 1963 and briefly worked for Bi-County Hospital as a cook for seven years and later worked at Chrysler Assembly for ten years.

She's residing in heaven with her mother and father, following (sister) Vera Joyce Walker, (brother) James Gossett.

She was joined in marriage to Walter Tyson, Sr. on December 27, 1972.

Opal was a devoted, loving and caring mother, grandmother, aunt and friend until her passing.

“ To the family,

My sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. May you continue to cherish the loving memories you shared together as they can be a source of comfort. Please also find comfort from the words at Isaiah 25:8 where God promises soon to "swallow up death forever".
