“ What a lady! I remember her kindness. She was always upbeat and positive, always greeting us with big hugs. I have many great memories to cherish. She will be missed down here, but happy to know that she is with our Lord. I wish I could be there with the family to celebrate her life, but I'll just say from here, Rest In Heavenly Peace, Nana.

I send my love and prayers to all the family.

“ To the family of Mrs. Oralie Brown: No matter what your trials are. or how big your mountains seems; The Lord is there to see you through; He'll go to all extremes. So if your cross seems hard to bear; and you know not what to do; The one who loves you most of all will be there to see you through. Please know that my heart is with you as you gather to bid good-bye to a beautiful and valiant woman who loved the Lord and her family. May the Lord comfort your hearts as only He can.

“ To: Adeline, Roce and each Family member! My fervent prayers to God our Father on behalf of the Family at the separation of our beloved Oralie. Thank God for her, and the good long life that God blessed her with. She bless me the times I visited in her home. Thanks be to God for the many lives she touch. John 14:27~Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give i unto you. Thank God for The Peace which passeth all understanding. You have done the best that you can, release her into God's Hands. To live is Christ, to die is gain.
Love.

“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain and grief can be intense. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-Psalms 55:22

“ To the family of Mrs Brown I am sending my condolences. May God be with you during this difficult time.

John 11:23-25

Jesus said to her: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.”
