“ there are far to many things to mention..over the years rev and Mrs baker were always like a second family to me.. from the first time I took Jackie around on Sussex..to drop her off..after she got off work..she saying..o no you got to come in...the house was full of life..warm..the kitchen table was the gathering spot...card playing was the secret...the smell of food cooking and her smile may it easy to say yes ..when she told me i was staying for dinner..that's the way it was at 19900 sussex...a home full of grace...love...and joy. ..watched over by a woman who always welcomed me and i always called my second mother...it was a honor to know her...and i will always cherish her memory with gratefulness...Amen...
