

Mr. Oscar Stringfellow, Jr.

December 27, 1948 - July 26, 2013

Oscar Stringfellow Jr. was born and raised in Forrest City Arkansas. He was the son of the late Oscar Stringfellow Sr. and the late Lenora Malone - Stringfellow. In 1967 he graduated from Forrest City's Lincoln High School, but not without being known as one of the school's fine football players and going by the popular nickname of "Poppa Tiger". He was recently nominated for the town's Hall of Fame and was due to receive an award in August of 2013.

In his early years, Oscar also embarked on entrepreneurship by starting his own Janitorial Services. Some years later, he opted for a change of scenery and made the decision to move to Michigan and started a career in the vast automotive manufacturing industry as a skilled tradesmen.

In the special year of 1992, Oscar met his lovely wife Vickie at the assembly plant. They were united in Holy Matrimony December 28, 2000. Through the years they shared a beautiful love and strong compatibility that was undeniable and immeasurable. It would be at times Oscar would just randomly write down heart-felt poems to express to his wife Vickie on how much she truly meant the world to him.

Their love remained unexhausted and pure until his final days.

Oscar gave his life to Jesus Christ and joined Greater Bethesda Healing Spring

Ministries. He served as deacon until his health began to decline. Oscar enjoyed fishing and cooking and could literally combine random ingredients and produce a five star meal, these dishes his family happily and lovingly called "Capoofs".

Oscar had an engaging, humorous and delightful spirit. He greeted everyone he encountered with kind words and a genuine smile. If one needed sound and good advice, he was indeed that go-to man, because with his words of wisdom he could accurately and undeniably point one towards the right pathway of life.

He loved his wife, kids and grandkids with every piece of his spirit.

He worked hard and diligently to provide and sustain a good life for them all.

He will be greatly missed.

“ OSCAR WAS A GOOD FATHER IN LAW!!!! I COULD NEVER ASK FOR A BETTER ONE, HE ACCEPTED ME AS HIS DAUGHTER LONG BEFORE I MARRIED HIS SON. WHENEVER I NEEDED SOMEONE TO TALK TO HE WOULD ALWAYS TAKE TIME TO GIVE ME ADVICE OR JUST GIVE ME AN ENCOURAGING WORD. WHEN I LOST MY DAD, OSCAR WAS THERE FOR ME EVEN THEN. I WILL MISS HIM TERRIBLY, GOD HAD OTHER PLANS. I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU AND I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU DAD! THANK YOU CRAIG, MIA-SHA, AND STAR FOR SHARING YOUR DAD WITH NOT ONLY ME BUT OTHERS WHO WAS AROUND HIM. DAD YOUR PURPOSE HAS BEEN FULFILLED NOW TAKE YOUR REST IN THE LORDS ARMS.

“ My Dad! what more can I say. He was a wonderful person. he was my superman. In my eyes there was nothing that he could not do. Im verry sad that he is gone but I will forever hold on to the memories and love that we shared. All he ever wanted was for me to be happy and because of him wanting that from this day forward i will dedicate my life to making sure that I am. Love You dad
